Portland Ballet's The Nutcracker Visits BBCH Patients

Colleagues from departments and units across MMC came together to paint windows in the P8 corridor overlooking the ED Circle. Participants were encouraged to depict the diversity of all holidays that winter has to offer.

Students and faculty from the Culinary Arts, Baking and Pastry programs at Southern Maine Community College brought supplies and expertise to BBCH to create gingerbread houses with patients and their families.

What's Happening will be taking a holiday break next week. The next issue will come out on Monday, Dec. 30.
