PEOPLE NEWS

Kelley E. Conroy, M.D.

Kelley E. Conroy, M.D., has joined Maine Medical Partners (MMP) – Women's Health Maternal-Fetal Medicine. Dr. Conroy received her medical degree from University of Florida College of Medicine, and served as an obstetrics and gynecology resident at Tufts Medical Center in Boston. She most recently completed a maternal-fetal medicine fellowship at Tufts, while also focusing on clinical research.

Dr. Conroy has extensive medical volunteer experience, including time spent in Nicaragua and Dominican Republic.

Genevieve London, M.D.

Genevieve London, M.D., has joined Maine Medical Partners – Westbrook Pediatrics. Prior to joining MMP, she was a pediatric hospitalist at Central Maine Medical Center. Dr. London received her medical degree from Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York City. She completed her pediatric residency at New York-Presbyterian Morgan Stanley Children's Hospital Columbia University Medical Center where she was Chief Resident. Dr. London's special interests include community and developmental pediatrics.

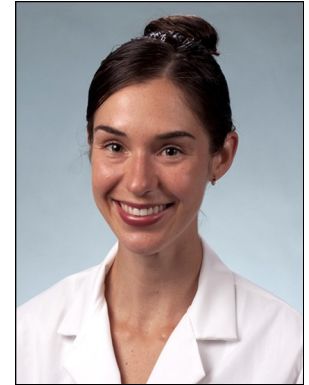

Outside of work, she enjoys running and cooking, especially with vegetables from her own garden.

Kristin H. Parris, M.D.

Kristin H. Parris, M.D., has joined Maine Medical Partners – Westbrook Internal Medicine. Dr. Parris received her medical degree from Temple University School of Medicine in Philadelphia, where she also completed her residency. She served as a faculty member at Temple University Hospital and then served as Medical Director for Pre-Admission Testing. Dr. Parris believes in working collaboratively with patients and colleagues to achieve the best outcomes.

In her free time, Dr. Parris enjoys playing tennis, exercising, cooking, gardening, walking and exploring, going out to eat, and spending time with family and friends.

Leslie Schulte, M.D.

Leslie Schulte, M.D., has joined the Maine Medical Partners Primary Care practice at Portland Family Medicine. Dr. Schulte received her medical degree from Wayne State University in Michigan and completed residency at Maine Medical Center. She has extensive volunteer experience, working with disadvantaged persons in Detroit and serving as an interpreter on medical assistance trips to Costa Rica and Mexico. Dr. Schulte's clinical interests include women's health, preventive health, and sports medicine.

Dr. Schulte enjoys spending time kiteboarding, cross-country skiing, and running.
