'North Woods Law' Wardens Serve Up Fun at BBCH

The cast of the hit TV show "North Woods Law" filmed a segment at The Barbara Bush Children's Hospital on November 23. Game wardens from the show served up ice cream sundaes to patients and their families, then passed out hats, signed autographs, and played with the kids.

"North Woods Law" follows the Maine game wardens as they go after law-breakers in rural parts of Maine. The special Christmas episode featuring BBCH will air on December 21 on Animal Planet.
