

WHAT'S HAPPENING...

PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPARTMENT ■ MAINE MEDICAL CENTER ■ PORTLAND, MAINE 04102

THIS WEEKEND

December 10-12, 1971

SKI CONDITIONS

The Ski Maine Association, Portland, reported the following ski conditions as of 7:30 a.m. Friday, Dec. 10:

Mt. Abram, Locke Mills	--6-12-inch base, 1" new powder, Excellent
Lost Valley, Auburn	--4-12-inch base, 1" new powder, Excellent
Squaw Mt., Greenville	--6-31-inch base, 5" new powder, Good
Sugarloaf Mt., Kingfield	--8-20-inch base, 1" new powder, Good
Sunday River, Bethel	-- 10-inch base, 2" new powder, limited, Good
Pleasant Mt., Bridgton	-- opening this weekend...no report
Saddleback Mt., Rangeley	-- opening this weekend...no report

CONCERTS

"THE MESSIAH," Christmas portion, Bowdoin College Glee Club and Brunswick Monday Singers, First Parish Church, Brunswick, 3 p.m. Sunday.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS CONCERT, University Concert Band, Chamber Singers and Gorham Chorale, Russell Hall, UMPG-Gorham, 8 p.m. Sunday.

FOLK MUSIC, The Gate, 9 p.m. Saturday.

MUSICAL IMPROVISATIONS by Bowdoin College Contemporary Improvisation Ensemble, Senior Center, Bowdoin, 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

EXHIBITS

SILK SCREENS by Peter Betts, '74, Colby College, Waterville, through Dec. 18.

THOMAS CORNELL, Drawings and Prints, Bowdoin College Museum of Art, 10-4 today, 10-5 Saturday, 2-5 Sunday.

PHOTOGRAPHS by Bevan Davies and David Wilkinson, Hildreth Gallery, Anderson Learning Center, Nason College, Springvale, through Dec. 13.

SCULPTURES by Jeffrey Peters, Westbrook Gallery, Westbrook College, through Dec. 18.

DOLLS AND DOLL HOUSES dating from mid-19th century, Lincoln County Museum, Wiscasset, Saturdays and Sundays to Jan. 9.

#####